I bought Forest Legends: The Call of Love in a hidden object bundle while on sale.

First, it should be noted this is not a HOG and there are no hidden object puzzles. It is a beautiful point and click adventure with many different mini games.

Second, there is a bug in one of the mini games near the end that causes the game to crash - I ran into the bug twice, despite having uninstalled and reinstalled the game, verified my game files, and created a new profile for my second play through. Re-opening the game thankfully brought me back to where I left off and I skipped the game to continue with the story. As there are no achievements, there are no penalties for skipping the game, but it's still a bit of a bummer and I usually don't like to recommend games with bugs that affect game play.

However, I do recommend this game if you think you can forgive the bug, because it is so beautiful and the story is so imaginative. It involves travelling through fairy-tale-like lands and finding ingredients to create potions in order to advance the story. Although chopping, grating, grinding, and distilling ingredients got tedious towards the end, it was a great interactive twist. Another reason I recommend this game is because the bonus chapter adds to the story by acting as a prequel and is an interesting little adventure in itself.

Maybe look out for it on sale if you're a fan of magic and fairy tale fantasy.. In Forest Legends: The Call of Love you play the human Eveline as she sets out to rescue her captured lover...who is a giant cat man who sounds like Puss in Boots from Shrek. Loved the story and world building in this game. However, towards the end the story gets extremely rushed and the way the ending was done felt a little unsatisfying to me. Despite this I really enjoyed Forest Legends and would recommend it to fans of point and click puzzle games.

New expansion Tielieketi Incident:

In the summer of 1969 the situation worsened significantly in the Kazakhstan sector of the Soviet-Chinese border, defended by the Uch-Aral border guard detachment (near Dzhungar Gates area). On August 12, border guards at observation posts of the "Rodnikovaya" and "Zhalanashkol" outposts (BOPs) spotted movement of individual groups of PLA soldiers on the Chinese side of the border. General-Lieutenant Merkulov, the Chief of the Eastern border guard district, suggested the Chinese side to have a meeting to discuss the situation, but there was no answer.

On August 13 night, using favorable terrain, the Chinese covertly concentrated a group of up to 30 soldiers on their territory near the border opposite ht. "Kamennaya". Two more groups of 30 people each were stationed on the flanks of the disputed area: one - opposite 39th, and the other - opposite 40th border marks, and the reserve group of up to 60 people - at the BOP "Terekty".

- Two operations for the USSR border guard and the People's Liberation Army depicting a most realistic version of events.
- One operation for the PLA showing the Chinese version of events.
- Precisely recreated area near Zhalanashkol lake on the Soviet-Chinese border, 36 sq.km wide.
- Historical organizational structure of units at the time of the incident.
